

That Little Hacking Cough

Hard coughs are bad enough, to be sure. But it's often the little, hacking, tickling, persistent cough that means the most, especially when there is a history of weak lungs in the family. What should be done? Ask your doctor. He knows. Ask him about the formula on the label of every bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Ask him if this medicine has his full approval for throat and lung troubles. Then do as he says.

BOY SCOUTS TO LEAVE EN TOUR

"We carry our own band," announces Scoutmaster James Wilder, guiding spirit of all the Boy Scouts of Honolulu and particular leader of Fifth Troop, Honolulu, which includes the Blazing Javelin and the Golden Arrow patrols. These patrols will march out of Honolulu at noon tomorrow, on a trip around the island, during which the boys will give a series of entertainments along the way to meet the expenses of their tramp. They have also subconscious hope that there will be a surplus sufficient to purchase scout equipment for the troop. The Blazing Javelins and the Golden Arrows are recruited in and around Lower Nuuanu and Palama, where this world's goods are none too plentiful and where chances at jobs with pay sufficient to leave something over for uniforms are none too plentiful. Hence the desire for the surplus.

"We leave Saturday at noon, marching up Fort Street on our way out of town," says the scoutmaster. "We expect to give shows at Kaneohe, Heia (Sheriff Jarrett and Harold Castle assisting—we hope), Hauula, Laie, Boys' Industrial School and Haleiwa. We will visit Wahiawa on Sunday and will go to Leilehua on Monday. Then we will return to Honolulu and perhaps give our show here. Tickets will be ten cents and the free list has been suspended."

LOCAL FIRMS UNDERBID

BY SEATTLE CONTRACTOR

Local bidders for furnishing hay and grain to the military department here were underbid by a Seattle contractor. Contractor Robinson of that city secured the award for supplying the four army posts and Honolulu stations for the fiscal year.

Captain Game, local quartermaster, was notified yesterday morning by cable that hay and oats would be supplied by Robinson, and where necessary for additional supplies, calls could be made upon him by cable. The shipments are to be arranged in advance, but for sudden calls, the cable can be made use of. The Union Feed Company and California Feed Company put in bids which they felt would be as low as any one's. The Robinson award follows:

	Hay.	Oats.
	Lbs.	Lbs.
Fort De Russy	210,000	100,000
Honolulu	322,000	220,000
Fort Shafter	200,000	124,000
Schofield Barracks	7,000,000	5,000,000
Fort Ruger	63,000	27,000
Total	7,795,000	6,471,000

FORMER SOLDIER DIES AT SCHOFIELD BARRACKS

SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, June 27.—James Phelps, a civilian employe of the quartermaster department, and an ex-soldier, died at the post hospital Wednesday. Phelps came to Hawaii from the Philippines about three weeks ago, and contracted pneumonia after being only four days in the Islands. He enlisted with the 28th Volunteer Regiment in 1899, and went to the Philippines, where he remained during two enlistments. After his service he became connected with the quartermaster department and was employed in nearly every military post in the Philippines. During his thirteen years of service he never left the Philippines until he came to Hawaii.

The body was immediately sent to Honolulu and will be forwarded on the next transport to San Francisco for burial in the military cemetery. He had no immediate family.

WILSON LEADS CONVENTION

of Princeton early in the day predicted his nomination.

The Wilson forces succeed by a vote of 633 to 437, in seating the Wilson delegates from South Dakota, who were ruled out by the majority of the credentials committee, which was controlled by the Clark forces Wednesday. The Wilson men made a great showing of strength when the fight was carried to the floor of the convention yesterday and the minority report of the credentials committee adopted by the above vote. The minority report seated the South Dakota Wilsonites, while the majority report favored the delegates pledged to Champ Clark.

Swing to Wilson.

New York and Illinois swung into the Wilson column on yesterday's vote. The Wilsonites were jubilant, claiming that this vote showed the relative strength of the contestants for the nomination.

The Philippines delegation were excluded from the voting on account of a Supreme Court decision which ruled that the Philippine Islands are not a part of the country.

Hawaii for Wilson.

Hawaii's six delegates voted for Wilson.

Bryan and Senator O'Gorman of New York, as a subcommittee on platform, are writing the platform. It is a "progressive" document, indorsing the referendum and recall, the income tax and direct election of United States senators.

Ollie James made an address yesterday accepting the permanent chairman-ship.

Crowd Is Huge.

A thousand people besieged the hall yesterday as the time approached for the delegates to convene. Chairman Crain reported that the doors were being "rushed" and that the ushers and doorknobs were helpless. The police were unable to cope with the situation. Crain said thousands not entitled to admission had crowded in. They hung from the galleries and perched on the iron girders, and holders of tickets found their seats occupied.

His "Tammany" amid applause, but when "Tammany" was started up there was a din of yells, hisses and cheers.

A pretty girl in one of the galleries tried ineffectually to repeat the Chicago incident, when a woman, waving a picture of Roosevelt, was carried to the platform. She waved Clark's picture, but the rest of the incident did not follow.

Theodore Bell of California spoke on behalf of Clark in the debate over the South Dakota contests. A controversy was precipitated, the uproar lasting twenty minutes.

MARKET FOR SUGAR STOCK STILL SAGS

Olaa, Oahu and Waialua All Suffer From Tumble in Prices

Stocks yesterday continued the downward trend, begun several weeks ago. The prices are now much below the figures of three months ago. The chief sufferers were Olaa quoted at 6.50, Oahu at 25.875, Waialua at 115 and Onomea at 50. Although there are no panicky conditions in the stock exchange the low price of sugar has caused a big disappointment. Some of the sugar men say dry weather is partially responsible for the weakness in the market. In many sections the long drought has played havoc with the cane, although no serious results are anticipated.

As a result of the low price of sugar the dividends will be smaller this year than at first anticipated. Five cent sugar was talked by all the holders at the opening of the year, but the price has now gone to below four cents, with a probability that it will go even lower.

There was one important transaction yesterday which was the bright spot in the market. A deal was made of $25,000 worth of Olaa six per cent bonds at the old price of 97.50. Several Hilo railway extension bonds were also sold.

The stock of the Oahu Railway and Land company was placed on a new basis of capitalization yesterday when the figure named was $5,000,000, with 136 bid. The usual stock changes are now being made with the transfers closed. The stock dividend of 25 per cent, arranged several weeks ago, will be issued on July 1.

BUT TWO BIDS FILED FOR PEARL HARBOR ROAD

Only two bids for the construction of the Moanuaia-Pearl Harbor road were received by the county clerk, and these were opened last night. The Honolulu Construction Company bid $26,800, and John H. De Fries $22,978.

Both bids are above the estimate of the city engineer, whose basis of $20,000 was accepted by the board of supervisors as the outside figure, for the board appropriated only $20,000 for the work. Already $2500 is necessary to be deducted from the appropriation. Some of the contractors have expressed the opinion that the road could not be built for $20,000, nor for $40,000. The bids received last night disprove this opinion. The proposed roadway is a little over three miles in length and the contractors are to be permitted to make use of gravel, large supplies of which are near the line of the road.

BANANAS ONCE AGAIN STIR LEGAL WRANGLE

De Silva and de Costa Bob Up in Judge Cooper's Court

The disappearance of twenty-seven bunches of bananas, valued at $15, from land over which Manuel de Silva supervised for his mother-in-law, was again the cause of a legal wrangle yesterday afternoon when the damage suit instituted by de Silva against Anton de Costa for having him arrested charged with the theft was heard in Judge Cooper's branch of the circuit court.

Costa had Silva arrested on the charge of larceny in the second degree February 20, but after a hearing before the district magistrate, he was discharged. He now seeks damages because of this arrest and in court yesterday declared that he was in jail four hours and suffered mental anguish because of his arrest and was compelled to attend court several times which kept him from his work.

"I felt very bad when Costa had me arrested as a thief," he testified.

Costa on the stand testified that de Silva, whom he had known for twenty years, had come to his land, cut the bunches of bananas and then shipped them. Silva had leased the land and had planted the banana trees but Costa declared that he was behind in his rent and when he asked him to pay it Silva told him to take the land back and refused to pay the rent. He says it was after this agreement that the bananas disappeared.

Silva denied this agreement on the stand and the attorney for the plaintiff attempted to show that the original lease of the land had never been given up and that at the time Silva took the bananas he had paid for the rent. Silva declared Costa never gave him any receipts for rent paid because he could not read or write.

This case is interesting because there are often cases in which owners of land inform the persons who lease it that they must either pay the rent or surrender the crop already planted. The testimony brought out the fact that Costa has had his former friend, Silva, haled into court several times on various charges but that he was never able to prosecute him successfully.

Another question which caused much argument by the attorneys was as to whether the rent was to be paid every two months or every six months. The case will be continued this morning.

Appeal Settled.

It was announced yesterday afternoon at the session of the tax appeal court for Oahu that the Mary Rooke appeal had been settled and that there was the possibility of also settling the appeal of the John H. Estate.

The tax assessor revised his figures in the appraisal made of one of the pieces of property on the other side of the island owned by Mrs. E. O. Judd, and Mr. Swanzy in her behalf accepted the revised figures.

Testimony was heard in another appeal of E. M. Swanzy, the same arguments being used by both parties as in the appeal tried the previous day. Another appeal made by Mr. Swanzy is set for hearing this afternoon. This involves property at Waikiki, and before the case is taken up the court will go out with Deputy Tax Assessor Neely to look over the property whose reappraisal is questioned by Mr. Swanzy.

Charges Falsity.

Alleging that her husband, Manukoro Kawahara, threw her out of their house four years ago and has never allowed her to return, Katsuo Kawahara yesterday morning filed a suit for divorce in the circuit court. Falsity is the charge upon which the complaint is made. The couple are a been married just thirteen years. The ceremony was performed at Kiroshima, Ken, Japan. For several years they have been living in Honolulu. There are two children, aged 10 and 12 years.

Liliuokalani Trust.

W. O. Smith, S. M. Damon and G. P. Lauke, trustees of the Liliuokalani Trust, yesterday filed a suit in the circuit court seeking judgment against Hee Fat in the sum of $1085.32 alleged due for lease of land. The complaint states that Liliuokalani leased to Hee Fat, of Kapaa, Kauai, a portion of the Aliipuu of Lumahai at Hanalei, Kauai, for a term of ten years from July 1, 1903. The rental agreed upon was one dollar for the first six months, $800 for the next five years and $1000 for the next four and one-half years, to be payable quarterly. It is also stated that May 10, 1911, the trustees reduced the rental from the $1000 agreed upon to $800 but that there is now due $1085.32 with interest of $4.95, making the total $1085.32.

Case Goes Over.

After a lengthy argument yesterday morning over the admission of certain testimony by Officer Apana the trial of Chin Fan, charged with criminally assaulting a girl under the age of twelve years, was continued until this morning. The case was not heard yesterday afternoon.

It is now expected that the prosecution will conclude its testimony today and the case be given into the hands of the jury tomorrow.

Senator Case Up.

The damage suit of Liberato Gomez against Judge Whitney, Sheriff Jarrett and members of the board of immigration in which he sought to obtain damages because he was forcibly removed from the steamer Senator one and one-half years ago was dismissed yesterday. Judge Cooper granted the motion of the attorneys for the defense for a nonsuit. It was alleged in the complaint that Judge Whitney exceeded his authority in issuing the order for the arrest of Gomez and other Spaniards and Portuguese recruited by agents of the Alaska packers. An exception to the decision was noted by Attorney Ashford for the plaintiff and an appeal to the supreme court may be taken.
